Presentazione dell'azienda

Kiasmo è una società italiana fondata nel

2011 qualificata in quattro settori specifici: architettura, arte, design, fashion. La sua posizione geografica, Ruffano (Lecce), è un elemento caratterizzante della filosofia e, quindi, della produzione aziendale, in quanto permette di raccogliere gli importanti stimoli che scaturiscono da tutta la straordinaria cultura mediterranea.

Kiasmo è un marchio contraddistinto da una assoluta dedizione progettuale, ascrivibile all'interno della categoria del lusso made in Italy con forti legami al mercato internazionale.

Il nome della società incarna l'incrocio tra arte, architettura, design e fashion. Kiasmo si distingue per un metodo produttivo contraddistinto da uno stile assoluto, senza tempo, in linea con la più alta tradizione manifatturiera ed artigianale dell'Italia.

Kiasmo è un brand riconoscibile sia nell'alto valore espressivo e funzionale dei manufatti, sia nel risultato formale privo da pregiudizi stilistici; la capacità d'innovazione della società si riscontra soprattutto nella volontà di riconoscere il grande patrimonio storico e artistico, non solo italiano, come valore imprescindibile per la progettazione e realizzazione di nuove opere e manufatti.

La produzione Kiasmo è organizzata per serie di opere. Ognuno dei quattro settori produttivi contiene al proprio interno una collezione di opere divise in serie tematiche. La produzione comprende opere artigianali, industriali uniche e seriali. Le collezioni si distinguono per uno stile ed un uso razionale e naturale dei materiali.

Company profile

Kiasmo is an Italian company established in 2011 and specialized in four specific areas: architecture, art, design, fashion. Being located in Ruffano (Lecce), in the center of the Salento peninsula in southern Italy, is a hallmark of the company politics and productions, as it allows to gather the influences that come from the extraordinary Mediterranean culture.

Kiasmo is a brand characterized by an extreme design devotion, to be included in the Made in Italy luxury category with strong connection to the international market.

In the name Kiasmo is embodied the intersection between art, architecture, design and fashion and a production method characterized by an utmost, timeless style, in line with the highest Italian manufacturing and craftsmanship tradition.

Kiasmo is a recognizable brand, both in the high expressive and functional value of the artefacts and in its outcome, without stylistic prejudices. In fact, the innovation ability of the company can be found primarily in the choice to recognize the great historical and artistic heritage, and not only the Italian one, as a fundamental value for the design and creation of new works and artefacts.

The Kiasmo production is organized in series of works. Each one of the four branches of production contains within itself a collection of works divided into thematic areas.

The production includes craft works, and industrial which are unique and serial.

The collections are distinguished by their style and the rational use of natural materials.

Kiasmo Design

Il settore Design è costituito da opere d'arte e prodotti in edizione limitata. Ogni oggetto è il risultato di uno studio attento della materia e dello stile. I disegni della "collezione design" sono originali e Kiasmo ne detiene tutti i diritti. L'intera collezione, firmata da Vincenzo D'Alba, si fonda sulla qualità dei materiali e sull'artigianalità dei prodotti e sulla perfetta esecuzione. Storia italiana e linguaggio internazionale inscrivono il marchio nell'eccellenza e nell'eleganza made in Italy. Il settore design presenta al suo interno collezioni in serie di vasi, di piatti, di piastrelle e cementine.

Le serie di vasi sono costituite da pezzi unici realizzati singolarmente con ceramiche selezionate. I disegni le incisioni e le decorazioni sono state appositamente eseguite su ciascuna superficie. Le serie di piatti sono prodotte in edizioni limitate. I disegni sono riprodotti con la tecnica della decalcomania. Alcune serie sono in colore nero, altre nero e oro.

Le serie di piastrelle in ceramica presentano disegni riprodotti tramite la tecnica della decalcomania. La collezione di piastrelle include serie decorate con motivi geometrici e altre con motivi figurativi.

La serie di cementine è realizzata secondo le tecniche tradizionali. Ogni cementina viene prodotta a mano attraverso uno stampo unico di cui Kiasmo detiene la proprietà.

Temi decorativi, architettonici e figurativi costituiscono uno scenario di prodotti tanto utili quanto surreali.

Kiasmo Design

The design branch consists of artwork and limited edition items. Each object is the result of a careful study of the material and style. The illustrations of the "design collection" are absolutely original and Kiasmo retains the copyrights. The entire collection, designed by Vincenzo D'Alba, is based on the quality of the materials and on craftsmanship of the products. Italian roots and international language make the brand one of excellence and elegance in the made in Italy. The design branch includes collections of vases, plates and tiles.

The series of vases are unique pieces made with individually selected ceramics. The drawings, engravings and decorations are specially made on each surface.

The series of plates are produced in limited edition. The illustrations are reproduced with the technique of the decal. Some series are black, the other black and gold.

The series of ceramic tiles have illustrations reproduced through the technique of the decal. The collection includes tiles decorated with geometric patterns and others with figurative motifs.

The 'Cementine' series is produced according to traditional techniques. Each piece is handcrafted using a unique mould that is owned by Kiasmo.

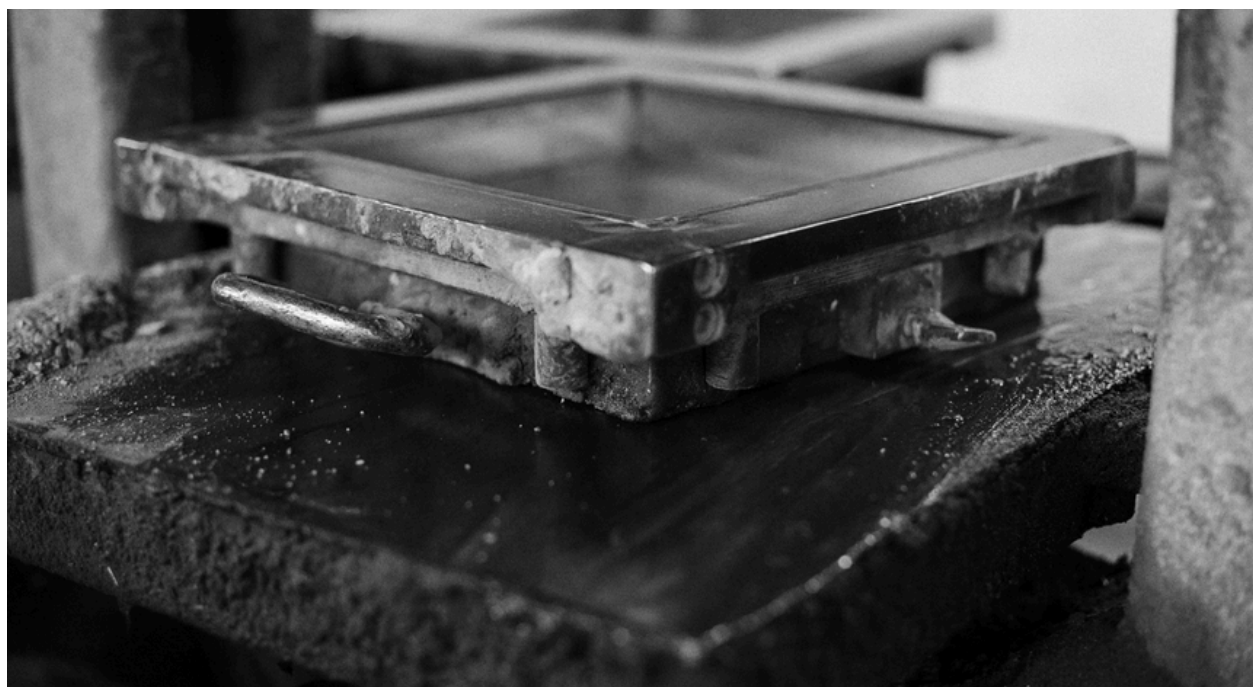

Decorative, architectural and figurative themes constitute a scenario of products as useful as they are surreal.
